

SAFE IS ROBBED AND THIEVES ESCAPE WITH SILVER AND CHECKS

HERALD'S CIRCULATION DRIVE ATTRACTS WIDE ATTENTION

Our Town

From practical obscurity to a place of vast commercial importance in the past few years is the development of country produce market in Cameron. Twenty-five car loads of eggs were shipped from Cameron in 1923, a grand total of 3,600,000 eggs. It is also interesting to note that 4,233 cases of eggs, or a total of 1,523,880 eggs were consumed in Cameron. The money represented by the shipments amounts to $80,000. The money represented by the consumption in the city amounts to $33,864. Also there was purchased and shipped from Cameron in 1923 seven car loads of dressed turkeys totaling 154,000 pounds and valued at $32,800. Livestock valued at $30,000 was sold over the meat blocks in Cameron for the meat supply for the city bringing the total of value of commodities aside from that of agriculture to approximately $200,000 per year. From this it may be seen that a well directed effort to encourage these industries would make of them a very great commercial asset each year.

Before the Democracy of Texas was affected by factionalism, foolishness and feuds, we had men in public life who would give their time and brains to the discussion of public ills like the great deficit faced in the state treasury. For instance, let some political Moses rise up in 1924 to lead the children of Democracy through the wilderness of economic disaster. Here's something for legislative candidates from Milam county to think about and tell the people what remedies, if any, they propose to advocate in the legislature: The deficiency in the general revenue of the state was $4,256,370 on January 31, 1924. At the same time delinquent unpaid taxes on real property due the state exceeded $7,700,000. As a policy of justice would it not be better to call upon those who owe the government rather than ask those who regularly pay to make further sacrifices? Let the legislative candidates answer these questions before the people, or let agitation bring up on those who are responsible for this condition the consequences of public disfavor.

Here's something for Cameron Sheiks: Two years ago it was sideburns. Last year it was oiled hair and peon pants. This year it is the imperial beard and wavy hair. The species popularly referred to in the American vernacular as Sheiks are finding it most difficult to meet the newest demand of their manly roles. The rage for imperial beards and wavy hair, which started on the Pacific Coast, is sweeping East and is taking hold in the high schools and colleges. Feverish efforts to cultivate hirsute accomplishments are being made by young men who make it a point to keep up to date in manly fashions and fads. Because of the great difficulty being encountered in this direction by many who would essay to follow the fashion, it is expected to be even more popular than the peon pants and the oiled hair fads.

Nothing but a short sighted civic policy will admit the existence of unimproved parks, school grounds and unsanitary conditions. How may citizens justify themselves in declaring their loyalty to the community in which they live but can see no way to promote policies of sanitation and civic improvement. There are many things more precious to the community than wealth or commerce. Public health is supreme. We spend thousands annually for the health of our live stock but seem not to be properly zealous to protect the lives and health of our children. The city council it seems cannot well escape the responsibility of leading out on public health measures.

THE CITY COUNCIL WILL SELL $175,000.00 BONDS

WALTER F. SHARPE BUYS THE PALACE OF SWEETS

INTEREST OF H. H. STEDMAN
TAKEN OVER BY PURCHASE
THIS MONTH.

Walter F. Sharpe has purchased the interest of Hilary H. Stedman in the Palace of Sweets in Cameron and as proprietor has taken complete charge of the business and will conduct the same in the future.

Among the young business men of central Texas few if any are more widely or favorably known than Walter F. Sharpe who is a native of this city but whose business experience has been exceptional.

The Palace of Sweets is the largest confectionery and candy and cold drink business in central Texas and its equipment and service is unequalled anywhere in the State of Texas. It has been due to the enterprise of Messrs. Sharpe & Stedman that this business has taken so large a place in the commerce of the city with equal distinction among like concerns the state over.

For a number of years Mr. Sharpe was with the New York offices of the Texas Company, oil, surrendering his position with that company because of home ties and business interests here. The Texas Company felt very keenly the loss of Mr. Sharpe and his genuine business ability. Mr. Sharpe for a number of years was with the Robert McLane Company of Cameron but for the past several years has been a partner with Mr. Stedman in the Palace of Sweets.

The purchase of the interests of Mr. Stedman will be received with interest by the friends of Mr. Sharpe in Cameron and over the county and state. By his genial disposition and ability to conduct this business Mr. Sharpe numbers his friends by the hundreds everywhere and his thrift, industry and excellent character have laid up for him a striking success as a business man.

The Palace of Sweets is not only an outstanding confection business but one of the big commercial interests of Cameron.

Mr. Sharpe is keeping with his policy of service proposes that every demand of progress shall be met and that the patrons of his business will receive at all times the best that successive innovations can provide.

Mr. Stedman will remain with the business for several weeks but will enter some other line of business in the near future. His many friends will be interested in his welfare what ever his undertaking and will regret his leaving this splendid business he helped to build up.

Miss Maurine Messimer spent the week end in Temple, a guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. B. Kreuzsch.

CONTESTANTS BEGIN WORK FOR THE BIG PRIZE OFFER

Extra Votes of 200,000 On Each and Every Club, an Extra Inducement to Candidates and Prospective Workers.

The people of Cameron and the whole surrounding communities are taking a great interest in the circulation campaign that has just been announced and many have remarked at the unique method in which it is being conducted. It is something different from anything that has been tried in this section.

This campaign is conducted strictly for the purpose of increasing the circulation of the Herald and nothing more. Circulation to us is circulation wherever you take it and in any part of Milam county. In order to obtain that circulation we have arranged this campaign so that any lady who resides in this county and has the qualification of a winner—ambition and a capacity of being able to put things over once she is started—may have an equal chance with anyone she may have to compete with.

Already the contest manager has had several entries in this campaign but there will be several as yet. The campaign is just now getting under way. Many sections of this county has no entry as yet. Have you a worker in your community? Are you of the ambitious type. Would you not think twice of a proposition that makes it possible for you to obtain two years in any university? Would you not think twice before you overlook a proposition that makes it possible for you to earn as much in a short five or six weeks that an ordinary man earns in ONE YEAR time? Think it over, my friend, there is considerable room for thought.

Yes, tis true, this is not a something for nothing proposition from either side, but a few weeks honest effort on your part might win an Essex Coach for you.

Votes alone will be the factor in winning the ESSEX Coach and those votes must come through paid subscriptions to the Cameron Herald. It cost you nothing to enter, it cost you nothing to stay in—in fact you do not even have to be a subscriber (continued on page four)

Will Stop Sale of Meat If Slaughter House Is Not Built By Ordinance

Dr. G. E. Sutton Thursday issued a warning to meat dealers of Cameron that unless the recent ordinance passed by the City Council requiring the construction and maintenance of approved slaughter houses is complied with by April 15, sale of all meat killed in the public slaughter houses will be stopped.

This notice will give the meat dealers 30 days in which to comply with the ordinance as passed by the council. The ordinance requires meat to be handled in an approved manner as set out by health authorities. Dr. Sutton wrote the ordinance as passed by the city and expects that all butchers and meat handlers familiarize themselves with the law at once so that its provisions may be enforced on and after April 15.

MAGNOLIA COMPANY TO BUILD GAS STATION HERE

J. H. DuBois WILL HAVE CHARGE OF AGENCY WITH DRIVE IN STATION.

The Magnolia Petroleum Company has purchased the site now occupied by the Presbyterian parsonage and will in the near future erect a brick drive in filling station.

This station will be in charge of J. H. DuBois who for several years has been traveling over a district in central Texas for the Magnolia Petroleum Company. It is thought that the company has made the district more convenient for Mr. DuBois and also given him supervision of the local agency which he will conduct.

Lloyd Mitchell who had this agency has sold it to Mr. DuBois and is now with the Max Collins dry goods store.

Permit for the erection of this building has been granted by the city council, the building being fire-proof construction.

COMMERCIAL CLUB *WOULD FOSTER POULTRY AND FARM EXHIBIT.

President C. W. Lawrence of the Commercial Club has appointed a committee of seven to take under advisement and report back to the club on next Monday night the feasibility of building an exhibit building to house a poultry and agricultural show this year.

It is also intended that the ultimate object will be to foster a live stock show in connection therewith.

The committee is to take under consideration the advisability of erecting a building or shed on property recently purchased by the city known as the street running from the Henrichsen bottling works to the new park addition. This street is 250 feet in length and 60 feet wide making a total of 15,000 feet of floor space that it is intended shall eventually be brought under roof.

It will not be practical at this time to complete the building contemplated but such portion as may be financed at this time will be erected if the committee and the club agree that it is practical. It is contemplated that the city will set this ground aside for the erection of this building.

The committee named to take this matter under advisement is as follows: W. M. Cobb, chairman; J. C. Tucker, J. W. Coleman, R. H. McIntosh, T. S. Henderson, Sr., Judd O. Davis and J. B. White. It is the suggestion of Mr. Lawrence that this committee meet not later than Friday of this week and take up this matter and reach an agreement if possible and report to the club on Monday night.

Mr. Carl explained the work of the survey and the probable good effect on the public school system of Texas. The survey will make recommendations to the legislature for action.

THE GRANT LUMBER CO. LOSES MONEY THURSDAY

MONEY DRAWER FOUND ON FLOOR OF OFFICE WHEN MANAGER ARRIVES.

Safe robbers Wednesday night entered the office of the Grant Lumber Company in Cameron and took $15.02 in silver and checks from the cash drawer.

The safe was robbed but was not blown open, the combination having been found to be closed with the door open. It is thought that the door was accidentally left unlocked when the force left the office Wednesday night.

F. R. Dunlap, manager found the cash drawer in the floor when he arrived at the office Thursday morning and its contents missing.

A check for $9.49 and silver amounting to $5.62 are missing. This is the second safe robbery in Cameron during the past year but no arrests have been made in either.

The cash drawer of the Grant Lumber Company safe was prized open. It is thought the fact that the safe was unlocked saved it from being blown by the robbers who are believed to have been professional yeggmen.

Some of the suggestions made by the members for a program for the club were good roads, properly marked highways, publicity, more interest in public works in the city, sanitation, better hotel facilities, buy it at home, recreation systems, Boy Scouts and many others. From this list of suggestions the club will make up its program for the year.

The club is growing so fast that additional space will have to be provided for the weekly luncheons. Four new members were voted on Tuesday as follows: Walter F. Sharpe, Chas. Swift, Ray Burke and C. S. Peyton.

Broad Aims for 1924 Announced By "Better Homes in America"— Prominent Women Head Movement

Believing with President Coolidge that "the American home is the foundation of our national and individual well being" some of the foremost women of the United States are affiliated with Better Homes in America, recently incorporated as a national public service institution, with Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, as president, and James Ford, widely known housing specialist, as executive director.

Here are three of the women who, although engrossed in other work of vast importance still find time to devote themselves to what they regard as the most important work of all—the betterment of the American home.

Mrs. William Brown Meloney, nationally known editor is vice-president of Better Homes in America. The movement which has to-day grown into an educational force throughout America was initiated by her in 1922, when it was suggested to her by a speech of the late President Harding. Mrs. John D. Sherman, Chairman of the Department of Applied Education of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, is a member of the board of directors of Better Homes in America. Dr. Louise Stanley, chief of the new Bureau of Home Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, is a member of the organization's advisory council.

Better Homes in America announces as among its aims for 1924 the following purposes: To show the advantages of thrift for home ownership, to overcome our national shortage of homes, now estimated at 600,000, to introduce greater efficiency into the homes of the United States, where fully 90 per cent of the home women of the country do their own work, to make American homes more attractive, to promote the physical and moral development of American children by improving their home environment, to stimulate judicious purchasing for home improvement, and to mobilize community pride for a common object—pride of home.

Better Homes week will take place from May 11 to May 18, when hundreds of communities throughout the nation will foster the public education in the fundamentals of home-making by Better Homes demonstrations. Communities in every state in the Union have already signified their intention of taking part in these demonstrations, the purpose of which is to sow seeds which will reap a harvest of better homes throughout the United States. Approximately 1000 such demonstrations were held 1923, and it is expected that the number will be greatly increased this year.

"I commend participation in Better Homes demonstrations and in the other work of the movement," President Coolidge said in a recent letter to Secretary Hoover.

Mrs. J. B. White captured the children by her delightful story telling. A birthday cake with three candles was admired and in the cut the emblems of fortune went to these lucky guests: Thimble, Lola Clinton; ring, John Watson; wishbone, Bettie Foster anchor, Ernestine Green; button, Patsy McGregor; horse, Dana Kestbaum.

Ice cream cones and cake was served.

Mrs. E. E. Green and her little daughter, Ernestine were out of town guests for the party.

MRS. W. B. WOODY.

Mrs. W. B. Woody died at her home at 6:15 o'clock this (Thursday) morning, following an operation performed several weeks ago, and from which it was apparent that she could not recover, due to her advanced age.

The funeral will be conducted from the family residence in this city tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, the interment to be at the I. O. O. F. Cemetery.

The Reporter defers until next week the publication of a suitable obituary of this noble old Mother in Israel.—Rockdale Reporter.

Mrs. Woody was for a number of weeks prior to her death, a patient in the Cameron Hospital where every thing possible was done to alleviate her suffering. She was a noble Christian woman, held in the highest esteem by the people of Rockdale and known and loved by a wide circle of friends over the state. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. B. B. Blaylock of Temple, a former Rockdale and Cameron pastor. A number of Cameron people attended the services.

THE SHAMROCK.

Thro' Erin's Isle
To sport awhile,
As Love and Valor wandered
With Wit the spirit,
Whose quiver bright
A thousand arrows squandered.
Where'er they pass
A triple grass
Shoots with dewdrops streaming,
As softly green
As emeralds seen
Thro' purest crystal gleaming.
Oh, the Shamrock, the green immortal Shamrock;
Chosen leaf
Of Bard and Chief,
Old Erin's native Shamrock.
Says Valor, "See,
They spring for me,
These leafy gems of morning."
Says Love, "Oh, no.
For me they grow,
My fragrant path adorning."
But Wit perceives
The triple leaves
And cries, "Oh, do not sever
A type that blends
Three godlike friends."
Love, Valor, Wit, forever."
O, the Shamrock, the green immortal Shamrock,
Chosen leaf

WHY BANKS?

LESSON V

By J. H. PUELICHER, Chairman.

Committee on Public Education, American Bankers Association.

Why does not the banker pay savers as high interest on their money as he charges borrowers when he loans them that same money? Text books say he must charge more than he pays so as to meet overhead expenses, his unavoidable losses, and dividends.

J. H. Puelicher

OVERHEAD EXPENSES = cost and maintenance of the bank building, with costly equipment, such as steel vaults, so the depositors' money will be safe; light, heat, supplies, fire and theft insurance; taxes; and salaries to men and women employees of honesty and ability.

UNAVOIDABLE LOSSES = occasional unrepaid loans made to those who have the misfortune to fail in business. Although bankers exercise great caution and are experts in judging business conditions and character, they sometimes have such losses.

DIVIDENDS = money divided among stockholders out of clear profits left over after overhead, losses and all other interests of the depositors have been fully taken care of.

Thus bankers pay depositors less interest on their savings than they charge the borrowers of those savings so that they can earn funds to meet the expenses of rendering efficient, careful and valuable services to the depositors.

STRAIGHT TALKS WITH AUNT EMMY

ABOUT THE HOUSE MONEY

Aunt Emmy found Molly crying as if her heart would break.

"What's the matter, Molly dear?" she asked, patting the bride's shoulder.

"Oh, Aunt Emmy, it's that horrid money. The household money is gone again, and I don't know where it went. I can't tell Ted, and yet I can't finish out the week. And I was going to save some every week, too!" she wailed.

"So that's it! It certainly does beat all how silly people are about money. Now stop crying, Molly, and tell me how much you are short this week."

"Ten dollars," sobbed Molly.

"Dry your eyes and come out with me," comforted Aunt Emmy. "Everything will be all right. The bank is soliciting small accounts. I noticed they have thrift accounts, too."

"I don't care," sobbed Molly. "I can't have a bank account. No money."

"You are going to open both a household checking account and a thrift account. A thrift account can be opened with one dollar, and you must put aside a certain sum every week. You should save two dollars each week. Money that you once get your hands on is mighty hard to save so when we go to the bank we will ask them to take two dollars out of your weekly household money deposit and put it in your thrift account. The thrift account will pay interest."

"But how can I keep my bankbook straight?" sighed Molly.

"You can add and subtract, can't you?" snapped Aunt Emmy. "You went to school, you know, and the bank will be glad to show you at first. Come on, Molly, let's be going."

At the bank Aunt Emmy gave Molly a check to start her account. "You can give this back to me at the end of the year, Molly. You can save it easily. Never buy by telephone. See everything for yourself. Keep accurate accounts, pay your bills promptly and don't carry money around with you."

When they came out of the bank Molly was the proud possessor of two pass books and a check book.

"I've always been afraid of banks," said Molly, "but I didn't know people in them could be so friendly. And besides getting things down in black and white this way will make it a lot easier to keep them straight. I just know it will!"

Aunt Emmy smiled knowingly.—

Savings Bank Division of the American Bankers Association Offers Prepared Newspaper Advertising Service to Cover a Year's Campaign.

More newspaper advertising by banks as a business builder was strongly urged at the recent convention of the American Bankers Association by W. R. Morehouse of the organization's Savings Bank Division. He backed up his plea with definite action to stimulate advertising by savings banks by calling the attention of the members to a prepared newspaper advertising service developed by his division comprising copy to meet their requirements for a year's advertising schedule.

"It is my firm conviction that banks can use newspaper advertising with great success," Mr. Morehouse said. "Newspapers go into the homes—by their use as a medium the people of a whole community may be reached in a single day. Because a bank cannot directly trace a large volume of new business to newspaper advertising does not prove that the medium is ineffective as a business-builder."

"The fact that there are certain kinds of newspaper advertising which do not produce good results ought not to brand the medium as ineffective, any more than the fact that because a certain booklet or certain business-building letter fails to pull would warrant you in branding all booklets and all letters as non-productive mediums."

How to Advertise

"Newspaper advertising must be attractive and easily read if it is to produce good results. If the subject presented is not to the point, is too deeply involved for the average mind to grasp readily, is too full of big and uncommon words, it is only natural that it will not be read. If bank advertising is to accomplish its purpose it must be very simple."

"Discuss only the subjects which will make it easy for the public to patronize your bank. Advertise your bank, its financial stability, its officers, directors and stockholders and you will build prestige and strengthen public confidence in your institution. Enumerate the various kinds of service your bank is prepared to render. It has been my experience that the public is on the lookout for information about banks, banking methods and the kinds of service rendered by banks. For quick results I am a firm believer in sticking to subjects which have a direct bearing on banks, banking methods and service, until the public has become better informed about banks and the wide variety of services rendered by them."

A New Plan

"If you have not been successful with newspaper advertising try this plan. Confine your advertising within the scope of banking and especially enumerate the various services which your bank is prepared to offer. Boil down every advertisement to one hundred words or less, preferably less. Use headings which arouse interest at a glance. For example, a head 'INTEREST FROM DATE' will inspire action on the part of persons with idle funds to deposit because interest starts from the time savings accounts are opened. A heading 'PROTECTION FOR YOUR VALUABLES' will inspire action on the part of persons in need of protection."

HOW TO CATCH FAKE STOCK SALESMEN

Some state bankers' associations are distributing an investor's questionnaire with the idea of protecting purchasers of securities from fake stock salesmen.

"Whenever you are solicited to purchase stock or other securities, use this questionnaire before investing any of your funds," says one of these. "The questionnaire was compiled to protect the small investor and to emphasize the necessity of investigating thoroughly every investment proposition before placing any money therein. When you have been furnished with the information called for in this questionnaire, take it to any one of the banking institutions in your community and get its opinion of the stock offered. If the stock salesman refuses to fill out this questionnaire, have nothing more to do with his proposition, as it is evident that he is fostering a fraudulent promotion."

The questionnaire pins the salesman down to answering the following questions:

Name of company
Name of salesman
Kind of stock offered
Total issue of stock
Stock given for property
Stock given for good-will
Are you taking any Liberty Bonds?
If so, at what price?
Amount of cash needed
Par value of stock
Market price of stock
Has the stock a ready market?
If so, where is it listed?
Is the stock accepted by banks as collateral for loans?
If so, what banks have accepted it?
Your knowledge?
What are the present net earnings?

IT ISN'T OIL THAT FRIGHTENS THEM; IT'S BACKBONE.

So far as we know, President Coolidge will be the next Republican candidate for President. That seems probable at least. Mr. Coolidge has been President long enough for all to know his attitude on the wet and dry issue and many other issues as well.

What seems to be practical Republican certainty is faced by a great Democratic uncertainty. What man will be nominated by the Democrats for President, therefore, is a matter of intense concern to patriotic Americans of the dry persuasion.

The effort to make it appear that William Gibbs McAdoo has in some mysterious way been touched by the scandal, with which he had nothing whatever to do, is in our opinion an effort to eliminate from the Democratic race a man of superb ability and splendid courage. It is McAdoo's backbone and not his alleged connections which alarms certain sinister groups which prey on the Democratic party.

The thing we like most about Mr. McAdoo is that he looks you straight in the eye and tells you what he thinks. No pussyfooting. No hedging. No "playing safe."

On September 9, 1920, Mr. McAdoo said "Prohibition means prevention. It does not mean license in any form. To permit the sale of light wines and beer is to open a crack in the door of prevention, and once the crack is open the door is wide. The greatest victory ever achieved for helpless women and children will be thrown to the winds."

A few days ago certain persons interested in the nullification of the prohibition law visited Mr. McAdoo and asked him to make his stand clear. Mr. McAdoo did not say, "It is law, and all law must be enforced, good or bad." He looked them squarely in the eye and said, "I want you to understand this; I am dry."

Mr. McAdoo is not the only man available to the Democratic party who is of that type. Others may be discussed in future months, but the Washington News of February 25, 1924, proposes now the name of a man for the Democratic nomination who is all man. That name is Josephus Daniels.

The Washington News says: "One figure emerges untainted from this foul oil mess. It is that of Josephus Daniels, for eight years Secretary of the Navy. "Not only is he untainted but when one considers all the circumstances of his secretaryship, the pressure, direct and indirect brazen and subtle, that was brought to bear on him every day of those eight years to give away the Navy's oil, Daniels looms as an heroic figure and one that should challenge the admiration of the people of the United States irrespective of politics.

"But he should particularly challenge the interest and admiration of the leaders and the rank and file of the Democratic party in their search for a presidential candidate who is qualified by reputation, character, and general fitness to lead the fight during the campaign for honesty in government and particularly for the conservation of the country's natural resources.

"It will be remembered that during the entire eight years of Daniel's regime in the Navy department he was the object of a most vicious and malignant campaign to discredit him and drive him from office.

"He was pictured as a man unqualified for the position and held up to public ridicule by a certain section of the press. A certain New York humorous weekly with nationwide circulation was unceasing in its efforts to make of him the great national joke. It was strongly suspected then and is now certain that this campaign of abuse against Daniels was an organized conspiracy financed by the oil interests who were trying to steal the Navy's oil and knew they could not do it while it was in the custody of a man of honesty, courage and intelligence. And so the outrageous spectacle was presented of the attempt to ruin a man officially and personally because he possessed the very qualities which preeminently fitted him for high public position.

"Nothing that Woodrow Wilson did as President of the United States redounds more to his credit than his inflexible and unwavering support of Daniels during the eight years of his presidency.

"When Daniels retired from the office of Secretary of Navy his record for personal integrity was spotless, his record for official efficiency had never been equaled in the Navy Department and the oil grafters had been kept at bay."

WHY CONTINUE DELAY.

The Hudson, Massachusetts, Daily Sun says: "Everybody seems to agree that the tax exempt securities ought to be prohibited, but nobody does anything about it. Congress has assumed that a constitutional amendment is needed for that purpose, and that road is a long one. Many high authorities, however, have maintained all along that Congress has power to act now to enact legislation, under authority of existing income tax amendment. The latest advice of such action is Ed. S. Corwin, professor of jurisprudence at Princeton University. In an article in National Municipal Review he asks Congress to 'cease hiding behind a mistaken opinion of constitutional law' and boldly use its present power under Sixteenth Amendment.

"This would be but a short step to take, in connection with tax reduction measures, to put the whole federal taxation business on a sounder basis. Why not try it

DON'T PLAY POLITICS.

The two most urgent public questions at present time are tax reduction and dealing with corruption which has been unearthed in official circles in Washington.

President Coolidge feels with all his fellow countrymen a depressing sense of humiliation at the gross betrayal of public interest that has been disclosed.

The taxation question as well as lax or criminal action of officials performing public duty is a problem for both Republicans and Democrats. The people of the whole United States have an interest from the standpoint of lessening tax bills and securing honest administration of public affairs regardless of what party is in power.

The pity is that self-seeking politicians will attempt to use present situation to further political ends rather than to advance the best interest of our government.

We must register our approval of honest public officials and demand tax reduction if we expect to eliminate dishonesty in public office, or increasing tax bills.

DAWES IS NOT BLINDED.

Commenting on the progress of the Dawes committee and its investigation of German finances, the New York Evening Post says:

"Germany has been house-cleaning ever since she heard General Dawes and his committee on reparations were to visit Berlin.

"The dust seems to have been intended for the eyes of General Dawes et al., that they might not see too clearly the flaws in budget and tax schedule. If there was any such intention it proved futile.

The best advice that could be given the German people is, 'Don't let your representatives try any shifty practices or evasion of the truth with the American members of this special committee. They are bigger men in public and industrial life than most of those with whom they are dealing. For once, remember that you have to think straight, act straight and continue to play straight. The eyes of the world watching the progress of this committee, the success of which means so much toward the permanent establishment of world peace and renewed industrial activity.'

The maximum use of roads can only come when they are made safe for maximum use. A dangerous road will always be less used than a safe one, and a road dangerously used by some will be less used by others than a road wisely used by all.

At the present time two States give licenses to drivers without any examination of any kind. Ask for it pay a fee, and get it. Drive anyway—safely, dangerously, drunkenly; these States apparently do not care! Ten States have no age limit on drivers; you can give a child of five a car and tell him to drive to town, without violating the law.

Naturally, these States do not have roads as safe as other States which insist on ability to drive before granting a license and recognize the fact that a ton and a half of steel as speed is no misale to put in the hands or the judgment of a small child.

One of the great benefits which will result from the establishment of national highways throughout the Nation will be uniform laws for their use. Such laws will not in anyway conflict with State laws, for the State through which the highways pass will have equal voice in the making of national highway laws. It is evident that when a road is national property the Nation is responsible for who shall and who shall not drive upon it and the speeds at which driving shall be done. More and more it is coming to be believed that great trunk-line highways must be more than single roads; that they must have a central span for fast going and other spans for slower going. The way to make speed safe is not to hold it down but to make a place for it. But the immediate question is not so much safety from speeding as safety from inconvenient of driving as well as incompetence of road building, which permits the dangerous building, which permits the dangerous curve, the unfenced bend near a bluff, the too narrow road, the absence of illumination, etc.

These, and the problems of no laws or poor laws, may be solved in time, under any system, but will be solved speedily and solved well by the establishment of a system of national highways, great trunk lines, built and forever maintained by the National Government, which will also supervise their use and police their length.

Is it morally right for a city or state to start in business competition with its private citizens? State industries pay no taxes, but force private properties with which they compete, to pay the taxes so support the public properties.

WHILE FATHER "LISTENED IN"

By ADELAIDE R. KEMP

(© 1924, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

MRS. ANDREWS raised her steel-bowed spectacles over her gray, neatly-parted hair and settled back comfortably in the old stuffed rocker. She watched her husband a little anxiously. On a low stool in front of their radio he was intent on "tuning in." The result at present was a mixture of catcalls and squealing from the graceful loud-speaker that stood just behind the mahogany case. She shook her head and frowned slightly. "Why don't you stay where you are, pa?" she said. "That was a nice song. You're trying to find the band that plays the new-fangled music—Jazz, I think they call it. You know you be," she added accusingly.

David held up a warning finger and shook his white head fretfully. "Hush, ma. I can't get nothing when you talk. I'm trying to hear some of them good ones we heard last night—fox trots, they call 'em."

Ma rocked a little and looked around the modest sitting room. They might be moving along with the times, but, except for the shining instrument over which her husband was working so eagerly, the rest of the house remained the same. There in their places stood the old haircloth sofa and chairs prim and straight, and on the floor the carpet with its big roses. She had swept and dusted these things for nearly fifty years. On the mantel back of the chunk stove were her mother's candlesticks, and in the center a picture of their only boy, who had died when but a lad. She looked at it tenderly. Not many years now to wait. Above, on the wall, hung an old-fashioned sampler worked in red thread, "There is no place like home."

A sudden chuckle from her husband brought her back to the present. "Ain't that great, Jane! Hear 'em clap?" He was tapping his old slipper and keeping time to the fascinating music.

Mrs. Andrews acquiesced, but there was doubt in her heart. Was it right for David to be so much interested in such music at his time of life? Time was when every Sunday morning they had hunched up old Prince and driven sedately to the white meeting house. Now, that winter was here, it was much easier to settle down in the warm sitting room and "listen in" to the beautiful service in some big city church. Through the week David loved to pick up the liveliest music in the air. Oh, shades of their Puritan ancestors! True, they had only reached their present comfort and rest through a life filled with the sternest kind of labor, isolated among the forgotten hills. Now, suddenly, like magic across their horizon, they were able to mingle and listen to the world.

There was a creak that seemed to come from the back shed. Mrs. Andrews turned her head quickly and looked out into the kitchen. It was dark there and only a dim light in the sitting room. They had been listening to a weird sort of play at the beginning of the evening and David had turned out the lights to make it more realistic.

The noise came again. Mrs. Andrews' heart beat a trifle faster. Then she remembered Tommy, their old cat. He had a way of creeping about like that. David was far away in a western state and having a most enjoyable time. She would not disturb him.

Suddenly, before she could cry out, she felt something cold pressing against her forehead. Before her stood a short man with a cap pulled low over his eyes. In his hand he held the revolver which she felt at her head. His other hand was over her mouth and he made a motion for silence.

Another man, tall and gaunt of frame, was moving across the room toward the radio. David was shaking his head to the music which came rolling into the room as if in sheer defiance of the tragedy about to be enacted there.

Swift, agonizing thoughts hurried themselves through Mrs. Andrews' brain. What was the use of that great horn, sending out its beautiful music, if it could not in turn receive and broadcast their message for help?

The cold steel of the revolver slipped slightly to the bridge of her nose. She gave one wild shriek.

"Janie! Janie!" David's arms were around her. She looked desperately about. The men were gone, and her husband was holding her close and patting her shoulder.

"Oh, David," she moaned, "they held a cold revolver to my head and it felt to my nose just as they were about to shoot you."

David gently took off her steel-rimmed spectacles and laid them on the table.

"Guess there's all the revolvers you felt, wife. That play was too much, and you fell asleep while I was fox-trotting. They just said 'good-night' to me out in Nebraska, anyway. Wait till I put Tommy out and we'll go to bed. It's 2 o'clock."

How Much Does It Cost to Borrow?

It all depends on how and where you borrow, as shown in this table of approximate rates compiled for the Journal of the American Bankers Association:

| Institution | Method of Borrowing | Rate |
|---------------------------------------|---|---------|
| COMMERCIAL BANK | DISCOUNT OWN NOTE | 5 1/2 % |
| | SECURED * LOAN | 5 1/2 |
| | BROKER'S CALL LOAN | 4 1/2 |
| COMMERCIAL PAPER | THROUGH BROKER — 3 MONTHS | 5 1/2 |
| | — 6 MONTHS | 5 1/2 |
| SAVINGS BANKS AND INSURANCE COMPANIES | DIRECT MORTGAGE | 6 |
| | MORTGAGE EXTENSION | 6 |
| AGRICULTURAL BANKS | FEDERAL FARM LOAN BANKS | 6 |
| | JOINT STOCK LAND BANKS | 6 |
| INVESTMENT SECURITIES | REAL ESTATE MORTGAGES | 6/7 |
| | MUNICIPAL BONDS (1ST GRADE) | 4 1/2 |
| | INDUSTRIAL BONDS " " | 6 |
| FINANCE COMPANY | RAILROAD BONDS " " | 5 |
| | ADVANCE AGAINST RECEIVABLES AT 1/8 % PER DAY | 14.6 |
| | ADVANCE AGAINST AUTOMOBILE PAPER AT 1 1/2 % PER MONTH | 18 |
| PERSONAL LOAN SOCIETY | GOOD SECURITY OR ENDORSEMENT | 6 |
| | UNSECURED OR CHATTEL MORTGAGE | 42 |
| MERCANTILE CREDIT | HOUSEHOLD GOODS. 3 1/2 % MONTHLY | 36.00 |
| | TERMS 2 % 10 DAYS, NET 30 DAYS | 36.00 |
| | " 2 10 " " 60 " | 14.50 |
| | " 5 10 " " 60 " | 36.00 |
| | " 5 10 " " 4 MONTHS | 16.36 |

The above figures show that for the class of notes acceptable at a commercial bank, the rates charged are about 5 1/2 per cent, whereas for loans at a store they run as high as 36 per cent, and for chattel mortgages, 42 per cent. The rates given here represent the direct cost charged by the institutions named; in each case the total cost to the borrower is made slightly higher by indirect costs, such as stamp taxes, legal, brokerage or other fees. Thus the total cost to the borrower, who discounts his own note at a bank for 5 1/2 per cent, is 5.74 per cent due to deduction of interest in advance, stamp tax and computation on a 360 day basis. In the case of mercantile credit the total cost sometimes goes over 38 per cent and for chattel mortgages over 45 per cent. The above figures, however, give the comparative charges as made by the loaning institutions themselves.

BAPTISTS WORKING ON 75 MILLION PLEDGES

REGIONAL MEETINGS BEING HELD AND MEMBERS ARE ASKED TO PAY PLEDGES.

The Baptists of the Southern Convention are now directing their attention to the work of raising the amount due on the 75 Million Campaign.

Regional meetings have been held in this section and the pastor Rev. E. S. Hutcherson attended the meeting in Temple on last Friday where a number of Baptist leaders addressed the members and delegates.

Sunday morning at the church the pastor preached for the benefit of the great Baptist program and at the conclusion of the sermon one young man surrendered to Christ, one among many conversions had in the regular services of the church during the past few weeks.

The congregation pledged their aid to Rev. Hutcherson in his efforts to bring the church up to the standard of giving in the 75 Million Campaign. It is said the finances of the church are in the most favorable condition known in recent years.

Sunday night Rev. Hutcherson preached a sermon of strong appeal to the unsaved. Despite the weather conditions the house was comfortably filled at both the morning and evening hour.

The orchestra began its musical program at 7:30 p. m. Many are being attracted to the church services because of the good musical programs as well as the preaching service.

GEORGE WAVERLY BRIGGS ADDRESS BROTHERHOOD

MANY EXPECTED TO HEAR SPEAKER WEDNESDAY NIGHT MARCH 19.

George Waverly Briggs of Dallas will address the Brotherhood of the Methodist church at the next meeting which will be held on Wednesday night, March 19th.

The Methodist church has under way a great program for the spring months. On the last Sunday in April the church will begin its annual revival meeting. Rev. King Vivian of Bryan will do the preaching while Alfred R. Wells of Dallas will conduct the song service.

Rev. R. S. Marshall, pastor has the following announcement to make for the week:

Rev. F. D. Dawson, Conference Sunday School Secretary will be with us next Sunday and Monday. He will preach at the usual hours on Sunday and the other work of the Institute will be announced at eleven o'clock next Sunday.

Our Brotherhood meets on Wednesday March 19th. Are you coming? Every man in Cameron is invited. The program committee says that the next entertainment will be a "humdinger." Come and help make it hum.

The speaker is George Waverly Briggs, Jr., of Dallas. He has no superior in oratory. You will enjoy every word he says.

Our revival meeting begins the last Sunday in April.

MINISTERIAL ORGANIZATION.

The following officers were elected: Rev. H. R. McFadyen, President; Rev. E. S. Hutcherson, Vice President; Rev. R. S. Marshall, Secretary; Rev. J. R. Love, Treasurer.

It was determined that the regular meeting place would be the pastor's office in the First Methodist church. The association will meet every Monday morning from ten to eleven o'clock.

The matter of taking a religious census was discussed and such work will be undertaken in the near future. The various churches will cooperate in taking this census.

CAMERON WOMEN AT METHODIST MEETING

TWELFTH ANNUAL SESSION AT TEXARKANA HAS LARGE ATTENDANCE.

Texarkana, Texas, March 11.—The twelfth annual session of the Texas conference, Women's Missionary Society, M. E. Church, South, convened at the First Methodist Church Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock and will continue through Friday. Mrs. H. L. Carson of the local church made the address of welcome, to which response was made on behalf of the visitors by Mrs. W. O. Triggs of Cameron. Scores of delegates are present from all over the conference, which is made up of many counties of East, Northeast and Southeast Texas.

During the day reports were made by the following district secretaries: Beaumont district, Mrs. C. B. Sheeks; Brenham, Mrs. J. N. Thornton; Houston, Mrs. W. E. Ferguson; Jacksonville, Mrs. B. D. Dashiell; Marlin, Mrs. W. O. Triggs; Marshall, Mrs. C. B. Garrett; Navasota, Mrs. N. M. Wycough; Texarkana, Mrs. C. W. Newkirk; Timpson, Mrs. A. V. Simpson; Tyler, Mrs. R. M. Millsaps.

SUNDAY SCHOOL HOPES TO ATTAIN ITS GOAL.

Despite the weather conditions attendance at the Baptist Sunday school has been hovering around the 300 mark. The goal has been set at 500 by the first day of May and the leaders believe the goal will be reached and possibly exceeded.

The first department to reach its goal was the Mexican Mission. The church is evangelizing the Mexicans at a rapid rate. During the month of February as many as thirteen conversions were reported at a single meeting of the mission which is being led by Rev. F. A. Hernandez.

BAPTIST OF CAMERON OBSERVE WEEK PRAYER.

The Week of Prayer observed by the women of the Baptist church last week was well attended, and much interested manifested. The programs were well planned and splendidly rendered. The Auxiliary gave in cash fifty dollars toward a scholarship for a girl in medical training school in Dallas. This young woman is going to China as a medical missionary and we are only too happy to be able to have a part in this great work of evangelization. In addition to numerous other obligations assumed by the Auxiliary giving in this fifty dollars was indeed a sacrificial offering.

Mission Study Classes over the association are doing more to develop and enlighten the women of the churches than could have been thought of ten years ago.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The members of the Methodist Missionary Society met for Mission Study on Monday afternoon in the prayermeeting room. Mrs. Lena Baskin led the study from "The Child in America's Future."

Mesdames P. O. Adams, W. C. Agee and J. B. Lindsey were hostesses, and served a most attractive plate bearing ice cream in St. Patrick Day colors, angel food squares, iced with white mints and souvenir bows in the favored colors.

Mrs. J. L. Brock, of Bryan, in announcing the dates and location of

CHURCH MEMBERSHIP IS INCREASING RAPIDLY HERE.

Membership of the Baptist church is increasing rapidly both in additions by letter and by conversion. Since Rev. Hutcherson came to Cameron in the latter part of November and up to the service Sunday more than 50 have been added to the roll of the church. The progress of the church in every way has been very satisfactory.

The concern of the church at this time, according to the pastor is to enlist its membership as far as possible in a campaign of evangelism—winning men and women to the cause of Christ.

DEAN TOWNSEND WILL TALK TO MEMBERS OF MEN'S BIBLE CLASS.

Dean Townsend of Baylor College, Belton, has accepted an invitation to address the members of the Men's Bible Class at its meeting to be held on the last of March. The class of which O. L. Kidd is teacher will have concluded the quarter which has been given over to the study of early Bible history or Jewish history. Dean Townsend will talk to the men on Early Jewish History.

Not only members of the Bible class but many others are expected to attend the class and will be invited. At least one hundred men are expected to be present for the service. Dean Townsend is a noted Bible Scholar and it was with pleasure that the announcement of his forthcoming visit was made Sunday by J. H. DuBois, president of the class.

The Men's Bible Class was the first class in the Sunday School to reach its goal of 50 and the class promptly reset its goal for 60 men and will attain that goal on the day that Dean Townsend come to Cameron. The visitor is expected to preach at the church on the morning of March 30.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE APPOINTED BY BAPTIST CHURCH IN CONFERENCE.

Wednesday night following the prayer service the Baptist church confirmed the action of the Board of Deacons in the appointment of a publicity committee for the church. This committee is as follows: J. B. White, chairman; Mrs. Wm. Henderson and Mrs. J. C. Martin.

The committee will chronicle the news of the church and see that all the activities of the various departments are given mention as they deserve.

BAPTIST PRAYER SERVICE GROWING IN INTEREST.

Increased attendance has been noted with pleasure by the pastor at the Wednesday night prayer services. The services are taken up with a study of the Bible and interesting, spiritual talks by the pastor. The services are being held in the Men's Bible Class Room but it is certain that the auditorium will have to be used if the attendance increases further.

Miss Nell Bu Bois, choir leader, conducts the song service at the Wednesday meetings.

PRESBYTERIAN SELL MANSE.

The Presbyterians this week disposed of part of the church property, selling the manse to R. L. Batte, who will move the house to another part of town.

The lot on which the manse was situated will probably be sold this week. The newly acquired property, the former R. R. Tyson home, will be remodeled and made ready for a manse as soon as possible. The pastor and family will have apartments in the Henrichsen house while the work is in progress.

VOLUNTEER SUNDAY AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Instead of the usual every member canvass which the church has each year put on the middle of March, this year Volunteer Sunday will be observed. The people will not be visited by workers but all will come to the church and voluntarily make their pledges for the coming year. The church will be open all day and secretaries will be on hand to meet all who come. The canvasses of the past have been successful but the leaders are using this method for the sake of the spice of variety, and a good time is expected Sunday.

If you have been suffering personal discomfort and are unable to work, do not fail to call. Remember that demonstration will be free on above dates only and that his appliances are different and superior to others.

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment without delay. Sufferers from skin trouble should obtain a small jar of Rowles' Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

Housing Experts Head Movement For Better Homes in America; Educational Drive Under Way

DR. JAMES FORD DR. JOHN M. GRIES

The reorganized Better Homes in America movement, now entering its third year, is under the active management of Dr. James Ford, executive director, pictured above. Dr. Ford is a nationally known housing specialist, and has been granted a year's leave by Harvard University in order to take charge of this educational work.

Dr. John M. Gries, pictured with Dr. Ford, is one of the members of the board of directors of Better Homes in America. He is at the head of the Division of Building and Housing of the Department of Commerce.

As reorganized, Better Homes in America is entirely educational and non-commercial, being supported by public gifts. Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, is again president of the organization, and President Coolidge, for the second time, warmly endorsed the movement in his letter to Secretary Hoover accepting the chairmanship of the Advisory Council.

During the first year of the movement, some five hundred communities demonstrated Better Homes. The next year this number was about doubled, and there is assurance this year that the 1923 figure will be considerably surpassed in the number of communities demonstrating Better Homes, during the week set aside as "Better Homes Week"—May 11 to 18.

Particular stress is being laid this year on homes for American families of moderate means, and local committees have been asked to demonstrate homes which, completely furnished, would come within the reach of such families. Another particular aim of the campaign this year is to extend the movement to rural parts of the country as far as possible. Better Homes in America is seeking to convey to every American family that beauty and comfort in the home need not be strangers to economy.

campaign to be a success by doing your part.

The people of Junior High of this city wish to try out in declamation, essay and athletics. Special stress is being put on this phase of our work. There are, in all thirty pupils trying in declamation, ten boys and twenty girls under the supervision of Mrs. Joe Denson, reading teacher, and Mrs. Edwin York, expression teacher. The essays are to be under the direction of Mrs. Kathryn Robbings, English teacher in Junior High. In this work excellent training along the line of originality and oral talks is received.

IN AND ABOUT THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Edited by Pupils of the Seventh Grade.

Tedrow Swain.....Editor in Chief
Reba Young.....Assistant Editor
Are you proud of the Cameron Schools? Of course you are, but we wonder, if you were showing visitors around Cameron whether you would take them to the Grammar School. If you think you would, you should come and see it yourself first.

The study hall in which one hundred and 75 pupils are seated has been condemned. The walls are no longer pretty, the desks are in bad condition and the blackboards have become so shiny from long use that in many places the writing on them cannot be read. Some of the rooms do not have enough light and the heating throughout is very bad. Two small stoves in the back of the study hall furnish all the heat for this big room. It is impossible to keep the pupils comfortable with such an arrangement. These facts, or conditions, are bad but there is still a greater problem.

The Grammar School is crowded. Thirty pupils should make as large a class as any teacher can well teach but in some classes there are forty and even more to the class. This makes it hard for the teacher and makes individual attention to students impossible. We are speaking, not merely of classes in the study hall, but of the school as a whole. One division of the fifth grade is crowded into the study hall because of lack of room and an additional teacher.

Don't get the idea that because we are crowded, we are disorderly for our conduct is good. Each section has a captain to assist teachers in maintaining order, since the classes are so large.

The seventh grade on behalf of the Grammar School wishes to thank the people of Cameron for making it possible for the children to enjoy a new school building in the next few years. At a recent meeting of the school board, plans were discussed for the erection of a Junior High School and the remodeling of the present Grammar School. A bond issue for $150,000 was voted in December to cover the cost of the proposed improvement. This is what the school children have wanted for a long time and we are so glad that the public has awakened to our needs.

CLEAN UP CAMPAIGN.

Our city authorities have this week started a clean up campaign and this is a work in which we should all help. The Civic League and some of the other organizations have agreed to help in every way they can.

At present we have a number of contagious diseases in our midst and when we get rid of them we must have a thorough clean up so that they will not return. We are now making preparations to assist Dr. Sutton, sanitary officer in any way we can. Who will help?

We wish all the people of this city would burn the trash about their premises and what cant be burned should be put on the edge of the street so that the city wagon can haul it off easily.

We are also going to clean up all the wet, damp places so that we shall not have any mosquitoes and flies to carry germs.

The boy scouts will probably assist in this work. We also want to ask all the boys and girls of this school to help in this campaign so that our town will be a healthier and better place to live in. Cleanliness is next to godliness. Help this

In purchasing the interest of Mr. Stedman in the Palace of Sweets I am emphasizing my perfect faith in Cameron and it is with genuine pleasure that the announcement of my purchase may be made to my many friends and the hundreds of people in this city and county whose patronage of this splendid business has been attracted by the superb service and confections and drinks that have always distinguished the Palace of Sweets as the leading business of its kind in this section.

By every merit the Palace of Sweets has earned the good will and patronage of the people and its friends are numbered by the scale of appreciation for its splendid service at all times. "PRUDENCE"

By FLORENCE MELLISH

(Copyright, 1924, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

WHEN Amos Whiting told Hawkins to give Oscar French something on the Eagle, Oscar did not have the vanity to think it was wholly on account of his own journalistic ability. Oscar's father had been Amos Whiting's closest chum. But Oscar had a knack for writing, and he meant to make good.

"You'll have to take whatever, Hawkins gives you, even if it doesn't happen to suit your taste; then, by and by, you may get something different."

"We're swamped with sub reporters already. But if Whiting—see here, you may have 'The Twilight Hour.' Mrs. Starkweather is laid up indefinitely. You give advice to girls, discreet and sensible, but sympathetic. See? Your desk is over there by the window. I'll send you some of Mrs. Starkweather's files so that you can get her drift. Your signature will be 'Prudence Kenworthy.'"

"But—Isn't that a lady's name?" Oscar gasped.

"Of course, and you want to be lady-like and refined, you know. No rough stuff and no slang. You'll soon get the feminine touch."

"Great Caesar!" groaned Oscar French. "I don't want to get a feminine touch. I want a man's job."

Hawkins turned a curt shoulder. "That's all I have for you now. You can take it or leave it."

Young French set his teeth. "I'll take it."

"Oh, you'll like it when you get started, especially when the personal letters come in. But don't try to answer many of them. It's a waste of time."

Young French strode over to the desk by the window and buried himself in Mrs. Starkweather's files. He began his unbecomingly task with grim determination, and soon had the satisfaction of feeling that at least he was equal to it. When some waggish reporters left an offering of camellias and maidenhair ferns with a box of chocolates on his desk he placidly dumped the flowers into the wastebasket and ate the candy with ostentatious relish.

Oscar's manly determination to get the feminine touch was a success. He soon out-Prudenced Prudence herself, and the personal letters poured in assuring Miss Kenworthy that she was "better and better every day."

The personal letters! He did enjoy them, though he followed Hawkins' advice and answered few of them. But he did write personally to Georgie Goodale. Georgie wasn't sentimental or whiny, and she had some "pep." She lived in Martinville with her aunt Rachael. Aunt Rachael was a dear, but she wouldn't let Georgie do anything that the other young people did, and she was opposed to Georgie's studying law.

"Dear Miss Kenworthy," Georgie wrote, "your letters are a comfort and an inspiration, too. The twilight hour is the best in my day. But I'd give my new camera for a talk with you face to face. Now you like fishing; you said you did. Back of our cottage is a wonderful trout brook, and Aunt Rachel's luncheons are gorgeous. Can't we make a date?"

Oscar French caught at the idea. He did make a date with Georgie. He laughed at the mirrored image of his fisherman's costume in anticipation of her surprise. He looked forward like a schoolboy to the tête-à-tête and the good fishing and Aunt Rachel's "gorgeous luncheon." But when he actually stood on the platform of Marshville station he scanned the faces of the women waiting there, half dreading to meet Georgie.

"I have lots of freckles and look like a boy," she had written. He failed to identify the buoyant and vivacious Georgie in the middle-aged and faded-looking group. A lanky, freckled youth encumbered with fishing tackle, was watching the women who alighted from the train.

"I'm looking for Prudence Kenworthy," he announced impersonally. "Hello, Georgie," called a genial employee, who was carrying leather mailbags.

Oscar faced the freckled youth.

"That's one of my names."

The freckled youth grinned. "I'm Georgie. The joke's on me," he added magnanimously.

"No, it's on me," French insisted, not to be outdone. "You have the freckles, at any rate. Is there a real trout brook?"

"You bet your life there is! and a cloudy day like this—oh, boy! Come on, partner, and we'll show 'em."

"I'm glad you aren't a lady," Georgie confided to his companion when the wicker baskets were nearly full. "I was beginning to have cold feet."

"So was I," French acknowledged.

"Well, it's time for luncheon, and Aunt Rachel promised to make a peach short-cake. I guess she'll have chicken salad, too."

They tramped across the fields and approached the cottage from the back. "There's Aunt Rachel in the doorway," cried Georgie, who was striding ahead in the narrow path.

Oscar looked over Georgie's shoulder. That union of girlish grace and womanly poise? Why, Aunt Rachel was peaches and cream!

"Luncheon's ready, Georgie," she called and vanished.

Georgie waved his guest up the broad, low stone steps. Oscar French drew in the fragrance of hot coffee and short-cake and, passing through the low vine-wreathed doorway, he followed Aunt Rachel like a dove.

Interesting Statistics Shown By the County Tax Records

If you have $12,065,842 you can buy all the land in Milan county according to the tax records which show the taxable value of the acreage in the county both rural and in the towns.

The average value per acre is $18. This is explained by reason of the fact that a large area of the county is of sandy soil and not highly valued as farm land.

The values are: Rural acreage $10,672,354; City property $2,393,488. There are 647,154 acres accounted for on the tax rolls.

Despite the modern trend of things the horse still remains an indispensable utility on the farm and the power machinery that has come into general use in other sections of the country is not to be found in this county.

There are 18,150 head of horses and mules on the farms of Milan county valued at $757,500.

|--------------------------------------|-----------|
| 13,000 head of cattle | $130,000 |
| 20 Jacks | 1,500 |
| 500 Sheep | 1,000 |
| 375 Goats | 5,000 |
| 6,890 Hogs | 37,090 |
| 20 Dogs | 900 |
| 8,590 Vehicles | 405,190 |
| Wares and Merchandise | 785,000 |

| Money and Notes | 412,290 |
| 107.62 miles Railroad | 1,591,280 |
| Bank values | 565,410 |

The actual value of these properties are of course much in excess of the tax roll showing but the customary rendition is shown in this statement of the totals of the record of taxable property.

Railroad President Is Killed In Fall From Horse

New York, March 9.—Alfred H. Smith, president of the New York Central Lines, America's greatest railway system, was almost instantly killed while riding in Central Park late Saturday afternoon when he pulled up his mount abruptly to avoid running down a woman who hurried from the Sixty-Seventh Street entrance to the park into the bridal path.

The horse braced itself and swerved and Smith, a veteran horseman, was around the horse's neck and slid to the ground, landing on his right shoulder and head.

A crowd gathered and the woman, whose life was saved at the cost of the life of the dominant figure in the American railway world, was absorbed into it and her identity is unknown.

The accident occurred at 5:15 o'clock. Several hours later 22 men, vice presidents and directors of the New York Central Lines, had assembled at the Fifth Avenue Hospital where the body of their chief lay, and it was known that the duties of guiding the destinies of the great railway system would devolve upon Patrick E. Crowley, vice president in charge of operations, pending election of a new president.

Cables and telegrams were dispatched, notifying all directors of the road of Smith's death.

The directors now in New York issued the following statement:

"The death of Mr. Alfred H. Smith is the greatest blow to the official family the New York Central has ever suffered in its history. Our heads are bowed in grief. Mr. Smith was the leader of the railway movement—a man fair to employ and stockholder alike. He blazed a railroad trail. Our loss can not be estimated."

Many of his colleagues—some of them men who had come up with him from the days when he was a bridge-man—gave him his first place in the transportation system not alone on the score of mileage of track of which he was master, but because of two bits of recent railway history made by him:

He forced a settlement of the shopmen's strike that gave fair treatment to the strikers, and

He boldly changed the New York Central dividend rate from 5 to 7 per cent at a single jump, declaring: "If we can not make railway stock attractive enough to the buying public, we had better go out of business."

Smith was riding in the park as was his daily custom, with Edward Hooper, city freight agent of the New York Central, when he was killed.

"We had been out about 25 minutes," Hooper said, "and were returning home when a woman stepped into the bridge path. I shouted and we both reined up or we would have struck her. Mr. Smith was an expert horseman but he stopped so suddenly that he was thrown forward and pitched along the horse's neck on to the ground.

"He caught the horse's neck with his arms and his fall did not seem to be heavy. I didn't think he was injured, but when he failed to get up I dismounted and found that he was dead—must have died instantly."

Mrs. Smith is in Pasadena Calif., and was notified by telegraph of her husband's death. A son, Emory, was in New York, and was among the first to reach the hospital. Nothing was known tonight regarding funeral arrangements.

All the stations and buildings of the New York Central system will fly half-masted flags for one month.

How To Plant the Home Grounds

In planting shrubbery about the house to improve the home grounds, there are a few well-defined rules that should be carefully followed. In the first place, never plant them in straight lines, but group them in irregular masses or as nearly like nature grouped them as possible.

When using them for foundation plantings up next to the front and side of the house, plant the taller growing varieties back next to the wall with the lower growing varieties out in front. Also do not plant the higher growing varieties directly in front of the windows and door, as it is not desirable for the view from the foundation of the house is quite high, little or no attention need be paid to this point, but more often than no, the foundation is not sufficiently high to made this point one that may be overlooked.

Before selecting the kind of shrubbery to be used and ordering same from the nursery, make a careful pencil sketch of the grounds and indicate where each shrub or tree is to be planted, keeping in mind that the front part of the grounds should be kept almost entirely free of trees and shrubbery. Of course these may be planted on the side front, but not directly in front as this would cut off the view, and that is undesirable.

Never plant shrubbery except in groups, unless it is some of the larger flowering specimens like Crepe Myrtle, which can be used to decided advantage by planting it individually to the sides or to the rear of the grounds.

Never plant the shade trees in straight lines. Group them more or less in the way nature groups them.

After the tentative sketch is made indicating where the shrubbery and trees are to be placed, then select the kind and variety desired. It should be kept in mind that in the South extensive use should be made of the evergreen shrubbery, both the broad-leaved evergreen and the Coniferous evergreen. As a rule one-half to two-thirds of the shrubbery planted on Southern home grounds should be evergreens.

The Abelia Grandiflora is probably the leader among the broad-leaved evergreens for use on Southern home grounds. Its leaves are a dark glossy green and stay on throughout the winter. From early spring until frost it is a mass of beautiful flowers. It will stand heavy pruning and may be cut so as to grow high, low, or in any desired shape.

Of the flowering shrubs that are not evergreens, Spirea is one of the leaders, and everyone should plant one or more clumps of this beautiful flowering shrub. Spirea Van Houtte the common name of which is bridal bower, is one of the best. It produces a great mass of white blooms early in the spring. It grows quite high and a good arrangement is to plant the Spirea Can Houtte right next to the wall with a lower growing Spirea directly in front of it, such as Spirea Thunbergi. Then directly in front of the Spirea Thunbergi, plant a clump or group of the Abelia Grandiflora. This will give a mighty effective arrangement of these three shrubs.

Of course these three are only a few of the many varieties that are especially suited to the South. Others that may be used very effectively are some of the Coniferous evergreens, particularly the American Arborvitae and the Golden Arborvitae.

Still other flowering shrubs that may be used to advantage are Weigela, Deutzia, Hydrangia, Golden Bell, Lilac and Honeysuckle. There are many others that are well adapted to the South, but these are among the leaders.

By choosing from the kinds and varieties of shrubbery named above and grouping according to methods suggested, one can, for a very few dollars, very greatly improve the appearance of the home and add $500 to $1,000 to the sales value of the place.

Yes—it can be done

The finest of cars can be sold at these prices

THE Studebaker name guarantees to you the utmost in fine-car construction. For 72 years it has stood for quality, for honest workmanship, for square dealing.

It has always stood for style and class. Remember Studebaker carriages—supreme examples of fine coach building.

Consider our facilities—mark what we have at stake. $90,000,000 in assets, $50,000,000 in plants and equipment, $10,000,000 in body plants alone.

Note our multiplying sales—the sensation of Motordom.

It is fair to assume that we can and do build the finest cars and at Studebaker prices.

What is a fine car?

A fine car means the best materials any cost can buy. We use 35 formulas for steels, each known to be best for its purpose. We pay a premium of 15% on some to get the formulas exact.

All Studebaker models are equipped with Timken bearings. There are few cars in America, regardless of price, which equal ours on this point. In our Light-Six, for instance, we put more Timken bearings than are used in any competitive car, within $1,500 of its price.

A fine car means fine engineering. We spend $500,000 yearly on that department, employing 125 able men.

It means careful construction. We have 12,500 up-to-date machines. 1,120 of our operations are exact to 1/1000 of an inch. 360 are exact to one-half of 1/1000 of an inch.

It means infinite pains. For instance, we machine all surfaces of our crankshafts as was done in Liberty Airplane Motors. We are the only makers of cars at our prices who do this.

It means careful inspection. With us it means 30,000 inspections in the manufacture of each Studebaker car.

Luxury and beauty

It means a car to be proud of. Our body finish includes 15 coats of paint and varnish.

Chase Mohair is used to upholster our closed bodies—made from the soft fleece of Angora goats.

We offer much extra equipment.

Where savings come

Then how do the Studebakers so far undersell any comparable cars?

Because we build so many. The fixed costs are divided by enormous output—150,000 cars per year.

Because we build our own bodies. The saving to you on some types is up to $300 per car.

Because we make our own forgings, saving another profit there.

Because our plants are modern and efficient. We have spent $38,000,000 on them in the past five years.

Because we keep our men, make them partners, pay them large bonuses to stay. Changing men is expensive.

Because we conduct this business in every way on the best modern lines.

What buyers save

The Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car sells for $1,045. Under ordinary manufacturing conditions it would need to cost you from $1,200 to $1,400.

On our Special-Six the difference might be $400 to $700.

On our Big-Six type the difference may run into thousands, depending on the number produced. For this car compares only with the highest-priced cars in Europe and America.

You will respect the Studebaker methods when you come to know them. You will admire the cars they create. You will delight in the values.

Remember that last year 145,167 fine-car buyers, after comparisons, chose the Studebaker models. So many people could not be wrong.

Learn why they did so before you buy a car at $1,000 or over. You owe that to yourself.

Go and See Why Studebaker Leads

Studebaker is now the world's largest builder of quality automobiles.

Last year, 145,167 fine-car buyers paid $201,000,000 for them.

There are 13 models.

Prices begin at $1,025.

Go see the reasons for this trend. See why sales have almost trebled in three years. Why these cars have become the sensation of Motordom.

You owe that to yourself before you buy a fine car.

Some of our Big-Sixes, for instance, have two nickel-plated bumpers, one or two extra disc wheels with cord tires, a courtesy light, a motometer, steel trunk, etc.

This factory, remember, is the finest home of fine coach work.

* * *

A fine car must be enduring. A Studebaker Big-Six, built in 1918, has so far run 475,000 miles. That means 80 years of ordinary service.

Man-Made Quakes Test Building's Stability

Tests to determine the type of building best adapted to withstand earthquakes are made on a machine which reproduces, with realistic intensity, the horizontal and vertical vibrations caused by a genuine tremor. The device is the invention of two Japanese professors, and consists of a platform on which a model house is constructed on a reduced scale. The base is then made to sway and shake as the surface of the earth does in a seismic disturbance by means of levers. The longer

'Automatic' Car Jack

When working on the rear end of an automobile, or under it, it is usually necessary to jack up one end of the car to provide more space to work. The illustration shows a pair of simple homemade jacks for this purpose. They are made of 2 by 6-in. unplanned lumber, and constructed as shown in the upper figure, each consisting of a 2 by 6-in. base, two support blocks, and a top board of the same material. The top board is pivoted on one of the support blocks by means of a piece of 1/2-in. iron pipe, loosely held in place by large staples; it must be about twice as long as the base and beveled at one end as shown, this end being slightly heavier than the other so that the board will fall to the position indicated in the upper figure.

The jacks are placed close to the wheel at the front or rear, and the car driven on

A hook is provided on one support block to keep the top board down, and a short length of iron pipe or rod, fitting loosely in holes drilled through the sides of the top, prevents the wheels from running off the jack while the work is being done, thus making the work perfectly safe.

In this connection an interesting feature is the already noticeable increase in enrollments under the Ford weekly purchase plan. More than 200,000 have already enrolled.

Everywhere throughout the country people are more and more using the plan as a sure means of arranging car delivery at the time desired and as a result there has been a noticeable growth in the number of enrollments, particularly during the last few months.

MORE THAN EVER, THE CAR BUYER NEEDS COUNSEL.

"The automotive market will be more complex and confusing this year than ever before," says G. C. White of White-House Motor Co., "and the carbuyer is going to find it no easy matter to satisfy himself as to actual values.

"Competition will be sharply accelerated. There undoubtedly will be close to 4,000,000 cars built in 1924, and high pressure selling will be the order of the day. No prospect for a car but will have a dozen different models urged upon him.

"The simplest and safest way out is for the shopper to pick the dealer before the car. The dealer who makes it his principal business to satisfy car owners rather than to sell car shoppers will not only have a good car, and take good care of the man who buys it, but he will give an honest and unbiased opinion about any technical feature the average citizen may not understand.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

Laughter-Proof Tribe Found in Wilds of Ceylon

For more than 2,000 years, it is said, laughter has been unknown to the Veddas, a tribe of aboriginal inhabitants of Ceylon, who have maintained a secluded existence in caves and jungles of the region. Cut off from other peoples and subsisting on bats, owls, and crows that they shoot with arrows, these strange people are said to have lost entirely the sensation of laughter. They are thin and bony, and a fat man is unknown to them. Efforts of a scientist, who recently visited them, to produce smiles by tickling them on the soles of their bare feet or in the ribs, met with no success. Their stony countenances did not even wrinkle.

Hawaii is reported to have more than twice as many motor cars and trucks as there are in the whole of China.

Women Play Part in Building of Modern Skyscrapers

That the needs of women must be given as much attention as is accorded the sinking of the foundations of a modern skyscraper, is disclosed in the report of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers. This consideration is reflected chiefly in planning for adequate and attractive rest rooms which, it is declared, can no longer be classed as luxuries. Also human frailties must be taken into consideration, including the habits of messenger boys penciling corridors and jumping down the stairs. The pencil habit has given rise to the term "pencil line" for the height of marble wainscoting, which is raised to such a level that marks may be easily cleaned from the walls. Awning fires are being prevented through dipping of the fabric in a fireproofing substance.

$892.61 Realized From Teaspoon Full Pepper Seed By Georgia Girl

During the spring of 1922 the home demonstration agent of Spalding county, Georgia, gave one teaspoonful of Spanish pimento seed to each of her six canning-club girls. Each one of them planted her seed in boxes according to direction. But due to drought, scratching chickens and other things only one girl, Lois Callo-way, persisted and succeeded in growing anything from the seed.

Conditions were not at all favorable, as the plants could not be put into the fields until June when the first rain occurred since early in May. The weather was extremely hot and only 172 plants lived! From these Lois sold fifteen dollars' worth of pimentos and saved about five pounds for seed. In March of 1923 her father began preparations for a not bed in which to plant the seeds left over. He dug a pit about seven by seventy feet and two feet deep into which he hauled several loads of stable manure and several of oak leaves. The leaves were placed in the bottom, then the manure and lastly a thick layer of soil raked up in the woods.

The latter part of March three pounds of seed were planted in rows four inches apart. The cover for the bed was made by sewing together jute sacks. The cost, including rent, fertilization and cultivation, amounted to $218.50. The sale of 17,440 plants when small, totaled $34.85. The remaining plants yielded 35,388 pounds of pimentos. These were cored and the seed saved before selling at the factory. The crop, exclusive of seed, was sold for $707.67. Fifty pounds of the seed saved were, in turn, sold for three dollars a pound, making the total gross returns from a teaspoonful of seed, $892.61.

FORD CAMPAIGN PRESAGES CAR SHORTAGE.

Important among other indications that the new year will see a vastly increased demand for automobiles is the "Buy Now" campaign which has just been launched by the Ford Motor Company.

Particular significance may be attached to this, coming as it does at the very start of the year, for no company in the industry is better situated to sense future conditions in the motor car field nor keep more closely in touch with the temper of the motor-buying public.

Through its great dealer organization, approximating 10,000, the company is able to obtain very accurate reports covering all parts of the country. That the outlook indicates a greater demand than ever during the coming year seems apparent in the action of inaugurating a "buy now" campaign at this time.

A year ago a shortage was seen and the public advised but the demand which developed during the Spring and early Summer months exceeded all expectations, with the result that production failed to meet it and more than 350,000 persons were disappointed in not being able to get Ford cars. Practically all through the year it was necessary to maintain a constantly increasing production schedule in order to keep up more closely with the demand. Even with that, deliveries were extremely slow.

In view of the company's experience last year the "Buy Now" campaign just starting comes as a warning suggestion to the car buyer and reflects a condition which presages an even greater car shortage during the coming Spring and Summer.

There has been an unusual demand for Ford cars and trucks so far this winter. In some cases dealers already are compelled to designate la-

On the anniversary of the sinking of the U. S. S. Maine in Havana Harbor in the Spanish American War, the day was commemorated at Havana by the dedication of a permanent memorial being erected by the Cuban Government. The old guns of the Maine are being used on the memorial.

TWENTY-THREE YEARS AGO

(From the Files of the Herald)

Berry Roberts is quite sick with pneumonia.

Dr. E. S. Ferguson and Miss Sallie Garrison visited in Rockdale last Saturday.

J. P. Fool, secretary of the senate, came up from Austin last Saturday afternoon and went out to Jones Prairie Sunday to visit relatives. He had his little daughter with him.

Hon. E. L. Antony filled the pulpit at the baptist church last Sunday night. We learn that he delivered a strong plea for God's kingdom. The church was full to overflowing.

N. B. Tuttle died at his home in this city Friday morning and was buried Saturday. Deceased was an old citizen of Cameron and was well known and highly respected. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. L. R. Scarbrough at the Baptist church from which a long line relatives and friends followed the remains to the cemetery. Mr. Tuttle leaves a wife and four children to whom the Herald extends sincere sympathy.

There is a case of small pox in the north part of town. A negro has had the disease for several days. The city should remove such cases out of town to a pest house, well guarded.

A man with his neck broken was an object of interest on the streets of Rockdale last week. His is said to be the only case on record where a man survived after having his neck actually broken.

Mind this: Be careful you don't do right in the wrong way.

The Austin Statesman in its issue of March 6, in an editorial, raised the slogan of "Turn Texas Loose." Doubtless this will be made the battle cry in the next campaign.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR CENTRAL TEXAS LEAGUE

FOUR FORMER TEXAS LEAGUE CITIES INCLUDED IN MAKE-UP OF NEW ASSN.

Marlin, Texas, March 10.—With four former Texas League cities included in its makeup, the Texas Association enters on the second year of its life with the prospect of passing from a sporting proposition into a paying one, declares A. B. Johnson of Marlin, president of this loop.

Although a Class D loop, a few more thousand population would give the league a Class C rating, Mr. Johnson says. In fact, the Texas Association really will enjoy a Class C patronage this season, as it lies in the heart of the Texas League and within its confines is included the most densely populated section of the state.

Temple is the only new member of the loop, having supplanted Sherman, which was dropped because of the long jump and the lack of local rivalry with other cities in the league.

Temple, however, has signed A. Rankin Johnson, manager of the Austin club last season and former major league moundman, as pilot, and he has amassed a strong array of talent.

All the other clubs in the loop have an excellent nucleus of players from last season, around which they will build their machines.

Walter Alexander, former major league receiver, returns to Marlin as manager this year. Cecil Griggs, former Austin College foot ball tsad, will manage Austin. Mexia has secured Fowlkes from the "Kitty" League as pilot, and Harvey Grubb is expected back at Corsicana. Waco has secured Otto McIver, manager of the Sherman pennant winners last season, to be at the helm.

Austin, Waco, Temple and Corsicana, the four largest cities in the loop, have in other years supported Texas League Clubs. Mexia, the fifth member of the circuit, formerly was in the Texas-Oklahoma League, while Marlin, the sixth and smallest city in the organization, had a club in the old Central Texas League. Everyone of the six clubs in the league are supported by proven base ball towns, and President Johnson is of the opinion that it is the most compact and probably the most thickly populated Class D organization in the country.

Every club in the Texas Association will have players in training this week, Mr. Johnson says. The schedule is now being prepared and the season will open around April 20, continuing four months.

Sec'y Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, Marlin, Texas.

DODGE BROTHERS COUPE IS MEETING WITH APPROVAL.

To meet a distinct need for a car of convenient size that would comfortably seat four people Dodge Brothers designed and produced their new four-passenger coupe. Orders taken have already reached the point where they are taxing the facilities of the factory.

The body of the coupe, which is of composite construction, is one of the finest examples of coach builders' art. The seating arrangement is staggered, with a seat of folding design, at the side of the driver. One feature is found in the fact that the driver sits directly behind the steering wheel—not at an angle. Four passengers can be seated with the utmost comfort. Also, the doors are extra wide, allowing ease of movement in getting in and out.

The body, which is painted a deep blue with a yellow trim-stripe, is upholstered in genuine mohair velvet. Mohair velvet has long been recognized as a material which for beauty and durability stands premier. It cleans easily and its richness is at once apparent to all who use it.

Disc wheels are standard equipment of the new coupe, as are window regulators, a dome light and hardware of Dodge Brothers own design.

YOUNG LADY, YOUNG MAN! HOW WILL YOU USE YOUR MONEY AND TIME?

It is just as important to be able to take care of your money after you get it as it is to be able to get it. We had a great time while it lasted. We made more money in 1919 and 1920 than ever before in our lives. We spent it with the recklessness that always follows "easy money." We bought things we didn't need, generally going into debt for them, and paid prices entirely beyond reason. We loaded ourselves up with things we couldn't use, and debts that we couldn't pay. During 1922, we struggled to get out of our bad situation. We fought hard, and the fight is over and better times are here. Every great authority on business says that we are getting back to normal.

Capital in this country is seeking investment, and when money is at work, prosperity follows, because money at work means industrial activity, and industrial activity means large buying power on the part of the working people. Beyond question, prosperity is with us, and wise people, both young and old, will get ready for it. New oil fields are being developed everywhere right in our midst. Building is going on everywhere. Charters are being issued for large corporations. The tomato, berry, fruit and many other valuable crops will be money in a short time. The cotton market is better than it has been for several years. Every young man and woman ought to know that the big opportunities in prosperous times go to those who are best trained to serve them. Business training makes the difference between small earning power and large earning power.

We are entering a period in which a thorough business education is more necessary than ever. You must have some special ability you can offer that will enable you to put it over. You must also get your training as soon as possible and in a thorough and practical manner.

The Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas, the largest and most progressive commercial school in the country, located in the most healthful part of the state, being the highest point between the Red River and the Gulf, is ready at all times to give you a thorough business education. WIDE DISTRIBUTION OF STUDEBAKER'S STOCK IS PLANNED.

Directors of the Studebaker Corporation, South Bend, India, have called a special meeting of stockholders April first to approve an increase of capital from $75,000,000 stock of $100 par to 2,500,000 shares no par and to distribute two and one-half shares for each present share.

The call for the meeting followed a special session of the directorate in South Bend. The stockholders will meet at Jersey City, N. J. It is proposed to place the new stock on a $4 basis.

Immediately after the close of the meeting of the directors A. R. Erskine, president of the Studebaker Corporation, issued the following statement:

"A special meeting of the stockholders of the Studebaker Corporation has been called at Jersey City, N. J. April 1, by the directors who held a special meeting at South Bend,

If Back Hurts Flush Kidneys

Drink Plenty of Water and Take Glass of Salts Before Breakfast Occasionally

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which helps to remove the body's urinous waste and stimulate them to their normal activity.

The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of good water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts. Take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they are no longer a source of irritation, thus often relieving bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to help keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this; also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

to approve their recommendation that the charter of the corporation be amended to change the charter of the outstanding common stock from $100 par value of $40 non par value, which would mean that present, common stockholders would receive two and one-half shares of new stock for each share of old stock now outstanding.

"It is intended to increase the authorized common capital stock to 2,500,000 shares, although only 1,875,000 shares will be needed to retire the present outstanding common stock of 750,000 shares. The remaining 625,000 shares of new stock will not be issued at present.

"The object in reducing the stock to a $40 basis is to permit broader investment in it by Studebaker employees, dealers, and car owners, and generally to give it a wider distribution.

"Under the present 10 per cent common dividend rate, each new share of common stock will receive dividends of $1 quarterly, or $4 per annum.

"The new plan will become effective provided it is approved by the stockholders at the special meeting of April 1, as already stated.

"Stockholders are aware of difficulties attendant on a wide distribution of high priced common stocks selling in the market above $100 a share.

"While Studebaker common stock is fairly well distributed the directors feel that a much wider distribution among employees, dealers, car owners and investors generally will follow the splitting up of the stock and this feeling is responsible for the plan which they now recommend to the stockholders.

"Wide distribution of our stock will prove of great advantage to the corporation. Every stockholder of a corporation, no matter how small his holdings, is a friend of that corporation and will exert an influence in its behalf in his community. Other corporations in the automobile industry competing with our corporation have many more stockholders than Studebaker has and the directors desire to correct this situation.

"They believe that many more employees of the corporation in addition to the 3,000 who now own its stock, as well as thousands of car owners and dealers, will be able to buy stock in smaller units."

Cobb Seeks Game Protection

Irvin S. Cobb, of Kentucky, one of the most famous American writers, also well-known as a sportsman, is seeking to prevent the extinction of the country's wild fowl. Speaking of the need of protection for America's migratory birds, Mr. Cobb said:

"Not so long ago our country was a sportsman's paradise. Wild fowl bred in millions in our marsh lands. They had practically unlimited areas for nesting, resting and feeding. These birds furnished healthful recreation for the hunter of moderate means. From the standpoint of their food value alone, they constituted a great natural resource."

"Today, vast drainage operations have almost deprived wild fowl of their natural resting and breeding grounds and the average hunter of any chance to bag game. At present, the best shooting areas for wild fowl are almost all in the hands of rich men's clubs or wealthy individuals. If the draining of marsh lands continues, the breeding areas will be hopelessly inadequate to maintain the country's remaining wild life. These drainage operations have resulted in little gain and in some cases in positive loss, as much of the land thus reclaimed has been almost worthless, while the immense cost has saddled the farmers in many districts with heavy burdens."

"We want to save the country's wild fowl for future generations. We are trying to democratize again the sport of shooting so that what ultimately belongs to the nation shall be the property of rich and poor alike. It is for these reasons that Federal and state authorities, national, state and local gunning clubs and individual gunners have combined to present to Congress the Game Refuge Bill. This comes before the House in a few weeks and deserves the support of every citizen on patriotic grounds as well as those of fair play. We are urging every one to write his Congressman and Senator to support the Game Refuge Bill."

Under the Game Refuge Bill each hunter would pay one dollar for a license. This money would be turned into the Treasury and constitute a special fund known as the "Migratory-Bird Protection Irvin S. Cobb, famous writer, who seeks to save nation's water fowl.

Fund." Approximately one-half of it would be used for the purchase of areas suitable for waterfowl. Some of these would act as refuges on which a shot would never be fired; others would be open to the public, where the man of ordinary means could shoot under suitable regulations. The other half of the money would be used to care for and protect our migratory birds, both game and insectivorous, and make more effective the treaty for that purpose between this country and Canada. Not one cent of the money to be derived from the Game Refuge Bill will come from the general tax payer. The man who hunts migratory game birds foots the bill, thus insuring the perpetuation of his sport."

Many national organizations have endorsed the Game Refuge Bill. Among these are: The American Game Protective Association, the National Association of Audubon Societies, the American Forestry Association, the National Federation of Women's Clubs, the American Legion, and the National Grange.

MAN KIDNAPED, TIED IN HOUSE FOR OPERATION SHOOT HIS CAPTOR.

Louisville, Ky., March 9.—William Gates, 31, surrendered and confessed to the slaying of Richard Heaton; Frank Cordell, a private detective of Indianapolis, was arrested in that city on charges of kidnaping and several other persons were questioned by the police today in connection with the slaying last night of Heaton, who, police say, had held Gates' prisoner two days and nights with the intention of performing an operation upon him.

In his confession Gates told of his seizure in Heaton's office Thursday night, of being taken to a house in Thirty-fourth street and bound to a mattress that had been pegged to the floor in a room that evidently had been prepared for an operating room.

An old fashioned .41 calibre Derringer, overlooked by his captor and forgotten by him in the excitement, brought death to Heaton and escape for Gates last night—while Mrs. Heaton, over whom the trouble is said to have arisen, was on the first floor of the house innocent, police believe, of the charges her husband had made against her. Cordell was arrested on a charge of kidnaping, it being alleged he aided Heaton in seizing Gates and removing him to the house which, according to police, was rented a short time before for the purpose Heaton had in mind.

Hayde Conrad, a theatre organist and friend of Heaton; W. A. Fisher, Heaton's partner in a merchandise brokerage business, and a Mrs. Moore employe of a Chicago detective agency, also were questioned. Conrad said he spent Thursday night in the house, unaware of Gates' presence. Fisher said he stood guard over Gates Friday without being aware of his identity and Mrs. Moore said she had been employed by Heaton to watch Mrs. Heaton, but finding nothing questionable in her actions had written a note the day of the slaying quitting her assignment. All three were released.

Louisville police expressed the belief tonight that Heaton was insanely jealous and stated that Gates was one of four or five men whose names he had mentioned in connection with Mrs. Heaton. Police have been unable to locate any man except Gates, said to have been mentioned by Heaton, and added that they had not been able to prove relations between Gates and Mrs. Heaton were other than those of friendship. Gates was formerly employed by Heaton.

NEW RECORD IN AUSTRALIAN RACE WON BY STUDEBAKER.

Speeding across desert wastes, mountainous roads and rugged mainland, a Studebaker Special-Six touring car has just established a new record in the thrilling race against time from Fremantle to Sydney, Australia.

The car was driven by John Burton, a veteran Australian motorist. It went through the gruelling grind of 2,889 miles in five days, 21 hours and 45 minutes. This is 16 hours and 12 minutes faster than the previous record of 6 days, 13 hours and 57 minutes.

In addition, Burton drove the Studebaker through to a new record in his race, by clipping off considerable time between Fremantle, Adelaide and Melbourne. The Special-Six negotiated the entire 2,889 miles under extremely severe conditions and came through in perfect running order.

This new Australian record of Studebaker's comes on the heels of new marks recently established by stock model Studebaker cars in the Syrian desert and in the Union of South Africa.

SAM HOUSTON TERRELL FOR STATE COMPTROLLER

SON OF LATE H. B. TERRELL OFFERS FOR PLACE HELD BY FATHER.

Sam Houston Terrell, eldest son of the late H. B. Terrell, former Comptroller of Public Accounts, today gave to the press his formal announcement of his candidacy for the office held for three successive terms by his father. Mr. Terrell is a member of the American Legion; is thirty-four years of age and announces from McLennan county. His announcement follows:

To the People of Texas: Some time ago the press carried the statement that in all probability I would become a candidate for the office of Comptroller of Public Accounts at the coming primary election. After a conference with my friends from various sections of the State, I now deem it opportune to make my formal announcement to the voters of Texas, in so doing, I feel confident of my ability to administer the affairs of the Comptroller's office in an efficient and business-like manner, without fear or favor, bias or prejudice. This department is the great clearing house for our State Government, and I am confident that my several years of accounting experience with the State and Federal departments have especially qualified me for the duties of the office I seek, and if elected I pledge the strictest economy in the administration of the affairs of the office, commensurate with good business methods. I believe in a reduction of the tax burden to a minimum for the necessary administration of State governmental affairs. I believe in liberal provision for all educational institutions especially our rural schools. I advocate the strictest enforcement of every constitutional and statutory provision of the law of the land.

THE VALUE OF SANITARY MEASURES EMPHASIZED BY INSURANCE REPORT.

Measles, whooping cough, influenza, pneumonia, heart disease, homicides and accidents—more particularly automobile accidents—were responsible for more deaths in the United States and Canada last year than in 1922, while for a number of diseases of major public health interest such as typhoid fever, diphtheria, tuberculosis, diarrheal disease and puerperal septicemia lower rates were registered than ever before.

The above statements are based upon the findings of Dr. Louis I. Dublin, statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, from the health record of approximately 15,000,000 Industrial policyholders—nearly one-seventh of the combined populations of the two countries.

"The lower death rate for typhoid fever in 1923", says Dr. Dublin, "constitutes a further triumph for official sanitary administration. The new rate of 5.1 per 100,000 among the Industrial policyholders is a reduction of 10.5 per cent since 1922 and of 77.6 per cent since 1911. The average annual decline in the death rate from this cause since 1911 has been at the rate of 1.4 per 100,000."

"The 1923 figure of 110.2 per 100,000 as the death rate for tuberculosis represents a decline of 3.5 since 1922. There has been a continuous fall since 1918 when a rate of 189.0 was recorded. Ten years ago the tuberculosis death rate (206.7) was nearly double the present figure and in 1911 it was more than double."

"The low mortality record in 1923 for diarrheal complaints marks the continuance of the district downward trend that has now been in evidence for a considerable number of years. The fall has been continuous since 1916 and the 1923 death rate (9.6 per 100,000) is only a little over one-third that of 1916 figure (26.2). The declining mortality from diarrheal diseases is another triumph for sanitary science. The growing practice of milk pasteurization and the regulation of its sale; the increasing knowledge of the principle of infant feeding; the improvement of water supply, and the increasingly greater care required by the ordinances of many cities in the handling of foods all have undoubtedly played their part in bringing about this result."

"The death rate from diphtheria in 1923 (15.2 per 100,000) represents a reduction of 15.6 per cent from the 1922 rate and of 44.3 per cent from the 1911 figure. There is already much reason for acclaiming the increasing administration of toxin-antitoxin to school children. The outlook for future control of diphtheria is better than ever before."

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Natural Color and Lustre At Once

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use preparation improved by the addition of other ingredients a large bottle, at little cost, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

HONORING AN IRISHMAN WHAT WE OWE TO ST. PATRICK SCOTCH BY BIRTH; IRISH BY CHOICE

BY BELLE M. COSTELLO.
"And what color will they wear?"
Says the Shan Van Voght,
"Sure what color will be seen
Where their fathers' homes have been
But their own immortal green."

Says the Shan Van Voght,
Note—This is an old ballad which has been a street song of Ireland for over 100 years. Shan Van Voght is Gaelic for "poor old woman," a secret name for Ireland.

"Was the good St. Patrick himself who selected the shamrock as the symbol of Ireland. He did it with devotional intent, to prove to the Irish the doctrine of the Trinity. . .
So when March 17 comes 'round
every son and daughter of the Emerald Isle and all the friends the Irish have the faculty of making are a wearin' of the green in honor of St.
Patrick's own day.

According to tradition St. Patrick, who became the patron saint of Ireland, for the act cleared the little green island of all its snakes. He employed a great deal of strategy and cunning, but one old serpent of prodigious size, resisted him.

Thereupon St. Patrick made a box and said to the serpent, "Come you and look in this little nest I've fixed for you." The serpent objected to entering the box, saying it was too small. St. Patrick insisted it was plenty big and comfortable. After a long contention the serpent did climb into the box. St. Patrick slammed the lid down and threw the box into the sea.

To complete this wonderful legend,
the saying is that the waves of the sea on the coast of Ireland are made by the writhing of the serpent, and the noise of the waves is that of the serpent imploring St. Patrick to let him out.

A SCOTCH-IRISHMAN.

St. Patrick real name was Succat, changed first into Cothraige, then to Mangonus and later on the ordination to Patricus. The footsteps of St.
Patrick almost from the cradle to the grave can be traced by the names of places called after him. Nearly all authentic sources assume that the good old saint was of Scottish origin and was born at Kil-Patrick in Dumbartonshire. He resided in various localities in Scotland, and founded two churches, Kirk-Patrick in Kir-cudbright, and Kirk-Patrick in Dumfries. He finally decided to leave the bleak moors and heather covered rocks, and sailed from Port-Patrick.
So favorably had the saint impressed his personality on the Scotch people that to this day Patrick has been a favorite name among the aristocracy.

St. Patrick on arriving in England preached in Patter-dale or Patrick's Valley, and founded the church of Kirk-Patrick in Durham. He became a great traveler by foot and arrived in Wales over a dangerous shoal in Carnarvon Bay, which has been known since as the causeway of Patrick.
Then he visited the Island of Anglesa and founded the church of Llan-Badr-rig.

His eyes turned toward Ireland at this period and he undertook a mission to convert the Irish. He first landed at Innis-St. Patrick, named the place, and went on to the County of Dublin, where he named Holm-Patrick.

Going over to the county of Down
he entered into the harvest with zeal, mingled with workers and finally converted the great chieftain Dichu and baptised him on his own threshing floor. This event is still commemorated in the folk song of the locality.

SCATTERING HIS NAMES.

Going over the County Antrim,
Temple-Patrick was soon established.
Mayo went the saint and founded

Then up a lofty mountain in County Crough-Patrick. Many little hamlets were visited in various sections and names quickly changed to something bearing the final ending of Patrick, and finally the good old saint got around to Dublin and founded an abbey on the spot where now stands the imposing structure known as St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Scattered through the Emerald Isle are many picturesque places which bear the good saint's name. There is St. Patrick's Wood, many St. Patrick's wells, where the saint stopped to drink. St. Patrick's cave, where living vermons who wish to expiate their evil deeds before death can descend into purgatory, according to a popular belief, and many little cooves where waters lap the green shores of some Patrick locality.

In the yard of Downpatrick, cathedral, visitors are shown a spot where the saint is supposed to be buried. Should they ask why no monument marks the place they are told that both Protestants and Catholics agreed to erect suitable ones, but could not agree upon an inscription. Whatever the Protestants erected one day the Catholics tore down at night and vice versa. Finally both grew tired of the labor of love and abandoned the idea and the grave is unmarked to this day.

WESTERN PIONEER TELLS INTERESTING EXPERIENCE

FRANK RIKERT, WHO LEFT ILLINOIS FOR CALIFORNIA IN COVERED WAGON IN 1864,
WOULDN'T TAKE $100 FOR BOTTLE OF TANLAC.

Frank Rikert, well-known resident of North Sacramento, Cal., who came to the state from Illinois in a covered wagon in 1864, along with other hardy pioneers, recently exhibited a bottle of Tanlac, which he had just purchased, to a friend at his home and remarked: "If I thought this was the last bottle of Tanlac I would ever be able to buy, I wouldn't take one hundred dollars for it," thus proving the high valuation he places on the famous treatment.

"I believe Tanlac really saved my life when I took it after the flu about a year ago," continued Mr. Rikert,
"for the attack left me 20 pounds off in weight, and unable to turn over in my bed without assistance. I tell you,
I thought my time had surely come."

"But, thanks to my wife's insistence, I kept on taking Tanlac till I was able to do all my work again, had back all my lost weight, and I've been feeling years younger ever since.
I'm always telling my friends about Tanalac, and can't say too much for it."

Tanalac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

For All the Family

"We have used Black-Draught ever since
we have had a family and that was shortly after 1874," says Mr. E.
A. Branstetter, of St.
James, Mo. "It is my first remedy when any of us gets sick. . . . We use Black-Draught for torpid liver and stomach complaints.

"When I get sluggish and don't feel so good, I take Black-Draught—and you have to show me that there is a better medicine in Missouri. I think it is fine for indigestion or for headache. It is a splendid family remedy. My wife

uses it for any stomach
ailment, indigestion and biliousness. We never let the house be without it if I know it. We also give it to the children for children's complaints, colds or fever."

Keep a package of Black-Draught in the house for

ANTON WOLF, PIONEER RESIDENT, IS BURIED

NATIVE OF AUSTRIA AND LONG TIME RESIDENT HERE IS BURIED.

The funeral of Anton Wolf, aged 77, who passed away Tuesday, Feb. 26th, following an illness of ten days, was held last Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Representatives of the Sons of Hermann, of which order deceased was an ardent member, attended the funeral rites in a body.

During an icy season some two years ago, Mr. Wolf, a man of large physique, suffered a fall at his home, breaking his right arm above the wrist. Whether or not this fall was a contributing cause to his death is a question. He had passed the allotted three score years and ten, and was mercifully spared the agony of a lengthy illness. He died as he had lived, peacefully and calmly, and apparently without pain.

Following a brief service in the home, the body was reverently conveyed to the Old City Cemetery, where interment was made in the family burial plot. At the grave the ceremonies were continued by the officiating priest and close friend, Father Splawewer, of St. Joseph's Catholic church. He paid a high tribute to the life of Mr. Wolf, lauding him as a man loyal to his country, his friends, his family. Among other things, he said: "He has passed from this life into the Great Beyond, (a thing we all must do sooner or later) honored, loved and respected, because he was honest. A man, because he was always willing to face every situation squarely and truthfully, he never shirked a duty, but acted with the strength which flows from the assurance of work well performed. He was an honorable, upright citizen, a loving husband and compassionate father, a smart man, one who thought and in the analysis of life, was not afraid to face the problem of Eternity. It could well be said as he passed into the veil beyond: 'Well done, thou hast done thy duty,' which is beyond appeal. It is this which makes eloquent the lives of the faithful in whatever sphere their lot is cast, and their lives are plain to read," he declared. "Death by many, was afraid to be discussed or faced, but why fear the prospect? More thought should be given the subject, for after thinking and preparing, death is not to be dreaded after all; the remains to be covered, but the spirit released has already gone to a higher life. The life here was the incomplete, the imperfect side, and the higher life was only the beginning. Shall we grieve that it is so. No, let us rejoice that the preparation time is so brief; that death sets the creature free, and releases every faculty for knowledge, for joy, for usefulness."

Anton Wolf was born in Vienna, Austria, June 9, 1846; he was twice married, first to Mary Weidinger, who died in 1874, leaving two children, Mrs. Mary Winterberg and Edmund Wolf. About one year later he was united in marriage to Lizzie Jatel of Braunowitz, Austria, of this union two daughters survive, Mrs. Annie Hardesty of Venice, California and Mrs. Lizzie Young of Ft. Worth.

Mr. Wolf and family came to Rockdale January 8, 1880, where he resided continuously up to the time of his death. He was for years associated with his son, Edmund, as proprietors of Hotel Wolf. This, and other business connections brought him in close touch with the traveling public, especially the traveling men, among whose ranks he gained many friends by his honorable and kindly dealings, and his memory will live enshrined in the hearts of many whom he befriended.

Mr. Wolf was essentially a constructive citizen, a conservative gentleman, consistent churchman and good neighbor. He had spent almost a half century in Rockdale, and was no less an American by being of foreign birth. On the pre-War Preparedness Parade he was a conspicuous figure as he lead in the march, the Sons of Hermann, carrying a United States Flag. After war was declared he was the first in Rockdale to raise an American Flag over his residence.

As he grew older, and his children had established homes of their own, he longed for a more quiet life in which to pursue his artistic taste, and in 1912, disposed of his public enterprises. During that year he and his good wife visited their old home in Austria. Since his retirement from business, Mr. Wolf has lived quietly at his attractive home on Cameron street, that he and his devoted wife and noble companion established forty-three years ago, living for each other, their children and friends, in the serenity of well spent lives, their leisure hours being absorbed in reading and in meditation. It was touching in his latter years to note the sympathy they displayed for each other, one rarely absenting themselves for any length of time.

In mute evidence of the esteem in which deceased was held, a wealth of beautiful floral tokens rested above the bier.

Surviving him are his wife, Mrs. A. (Jatel) Wolf, children, Mrs. Mary Winterberg of Rockdale; Edmund Wolf of Los Angeles, California; Mrs. Annie Hardesty of Venice, California; Mrs. Lizzie Young of Fort Worth, Texas. Eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren also survive him.

The active pall bearers were: Mayor H. C. Meyer, Ben Loewenstein, Gust. Backhaus, Hugo McCawley, F. C. Fahrendorf, W. E. Schubert.

The out of town attendants at the funeral were: Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Winterberg and children of Georgetown; Mrs. W. F. Young of Ft. Worth.

FORD PLANT AT DETROIT USES 500,000 FREIGHT CARS ANNUALLY.

Detroit, March 8.—More than half a million cars, one-fifth the freight car ownership in the country, are used annually by the Ford Motor Company's main plants and various branches, according to figures given out here.

The average freight charges paid through the Detroit offices direct to railroads, that paid by branches on minor shipments, and freight charges in direct shipments made manufacturing institutions to branches, approximate $78,000,000 paid by dealers on shipments of autos received by them, brings a conservative figure of $150,000,000 paid every year in freight charges through the instrumentality of the Ford Motor Company.

An average of 800 carloads of freight are hauled every day in and out of the Highland Park and River Rouge plants alone, and it is estimated that on the Ford Motor Company's account 50,000,000 pounds of freight in carload lots are handled every day in the Detroit district.

Shipping space economies, effected through the company's unique methods, are seen in the fact that while parts shipments to the assembly branch plants are figured at 10 units per freight car, in rail shipments of completed cars from the branches to the dealers only six assembled Ford cars and trucks can be loaded into a 63-foot box car.

The larger part of the Ford freight is shipped with the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton, the Ford railroad, as either the initial or participating carrier and special attention is paid to the classifying of all freight so that not only the company but the dealer as well receives the benefit of expert services in freight classification and rate adjustments.
